

MOBILISATION AGAINST ROCKEFELLER

PO BOX 642E GPO MELBOURNE

EDITORIAL

Well, Rockefeller has gone..it can be safely said that we gave him a decent dose of the anti-U.S. feeling that he has come to expect in his travels around the world. It was, though, for Australia, a much more important expression than an "ordinary" anti-U.S. manifestation...the time has arrived when no Yankee agent will be safe from the wrath of progressive and patriotic Australians. And lest anyone think that we've done our job, we are just about to get stuck into things as far as the struggle for Australian independence goes. There are over a score of foreign military bases to be expelled, there is an American-controlled economic and political system
